

BANGABASI COLLEGE MAGAZINE.

प्रणिपातेन परिप्रश्नेन सेवया

By Reverence : By Questioning : By Service

Vol. XVI.

NOVEMBER.

No. 7

1918.

THE MONTH.

Our College closed practically on Saturday the 5th October and re-opened on Thursday the 7th November. In accordance with our usual practice, there was no issue of the Magazine for the vacation month of October, and the November issue succeeds the September issue in due course. We accord all members of the College, students as well as teachers, a cordial welcome on our re-union after the Pujas.

On this occasion of a happy re-union we are grieved to hear of the untimely death of Kshetramohan Pattanaik of the Fourth Year B. A. Class, which sad event occurred in his native village in the course of the vacation. He was of a gentle and quiet disposition and endeared himself both to his teachers and fellow-students by the sweetness of his nature. We offer our sincere condolence to his bereaved parents on this melancholy occasion.

The re-opening of the College on the 7th November was a rather formal affair and it was closed on account of the prevalence of influenza in the Town and is expected to re-open on the 2nd December, provided there is a subsidence of the disease in the meantime. Though this precautionary measure has been needed under the circumstances, we must say that it will cause serious dislocation of work and entail a rather heavy loss on the students who are to go in for the ensuing Examinations.

Jr/98

OUR EXCHANGES.

Murarichand College Magazine for July. Meerut College Magazine for August and September. Dacca Review for July, August and September. Anandamohan College Magazine for September. St. Paul's College Magazine for September. Kayastha Samachar for August, September and October. Scottish Churches College Magazine for August. Krishnagar College Magazine for August. Oxford & Cambridge Hostel Magazine for September. Central Hindu College Magazine as well as Mahamandal Magazine for September, October and November. Bareilly College Magazine for September. Holkar College Magazine for July. Chittagong College Magazine, Summer and Autumn in a single issue. Hislop College Magazine Vol. II. No. 1. Commilla Victoria College Magazine Vol. V. No. II. Patna College Magazine for September. Midnapur College Magazine for November. Cooch-Bihar College Magazine, Puja issue. Mymensingh Zilla School Magazine, Puja issue.

The last two are new ventures and we accord them a hearty welcome.

We also accord a hearty welcome to the newly-started Students' Own Magazine, of which we have obtained the September, October and November issues (Vol. I. Nos. 1, 2, 3). It is a magazine started on a new principle, namely, it is a common meeting-ground for students of all Colleges and is conducted by students. It is thus a fuller development of the principle of co-operation and co-fraternity among students and we wish it a prosperous career of utility. We are glad to notice that our College is strongly represented on the staff of contributors.
