It is replete with interesting matter and gives a fair promise of the future literary activities of the members of the new University. We wish our new-born contemporary a long and useful career.

The College Union.

The COLLEGE UNION held its fifth sitting for the current session on Saturday the 20th December last at 6 P. M. in Room No 4. Our revered Principal was unavoidably absent and the attendance was very poor—we do not know if it was due to the severity of winter. There was no music and the conversation was not as lively and sustained as on previous occasions. Altogether the atmosphere was rather depressing, relieved only by a highly edifying paper on the teachings of the Gita (গীতার উপদেশ) read amidst pin-drop silence by Professor Bhavabibhuti Bhattacharyya M. A. This was followed by the usual supper to which the members did full justice. The company then separated at about 10 P. M.

The sixth sitting of the COLLEGE UNION for the current session was held at the usual place on Saturday the 24th January. This time too the attendance was thin, perhaps due as before to the intense cold of the season. The conversation, however, did not flag, academic topics forming the main theme. Professor Dhirendrakrishna Mukherjee was to read a paper on the Indian Renaissance, but as he felt reluctant to interrupt the brisk conversation the audience missed the interesting paper very much. A sumptuous repast gave the finishing touch to the pleasures of the evening and the company left at the proper hour for retirement.

The seventh sitting of the COLLEGE UNION for the current session came off on Saturday the 28th February at 6-30 P. M. Our revered Principal and the veteran Professor S. J. Kalidas Mallik graced the occasion with their presence and there was a slight improvement in attendance. The main item of business at this sitting has been recorded in the Notes. We may add that the party dispersed at the usual time after having partaken of a square meal amidst lively talk.

THE COLLEGE UNION held its eighth sitting for the current session on Saturday the 28th March at 7 P. M. in Room No. 4. The Principal was unavoidably absent, the attendance was very poor, there was no music and no reading of papers—a blank outlook every way. There was lively conversation, however, and it was followed up by a sumptuous repast—and these two items made ample amends, we presume, for all the shortcomings recorded above.

The Canning Hostel.

The last sitting of the Canning Hostel Association of this session was held on Sunday the 29th March 1925.

Our revered Professors S. J. D. R. Banerjee and R. K. Majumder accompanied by our beloved President Prof. S. Roy, graced the Association by their encouraging presence and they were hailed by the students. Our friends who are going to leave us after appearing at the I. A. & I. Sc. Examinations heartily joined us.
