

This over, some members of this Association entertained us with music as that was the last meeting of the Association for that session.

After this, the President rose and thanked his young friends for their enterprise. He then delivered a short lecture touching many points to our benefit.

Last of all, a vote of thanks was offered to the Chair, and the members rose with a heavy heart longing to meet after the long Summer Vacation which was approaching fast.

The meeting lasted for about one hour and a half.

BANGABASI COLLEGE. } D. N. Mukherjee. K. K. Palit.
 Date the 2nd April, 1927. } PRESIDENT. SECRETARY.

THE STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION

Our College closed for Summer on the 12th of April last and our Social Gathering came off on the preceding Saturday, the 9th. The aim of the Students' Association that organised the gathering, was to bring the Staff and Students together in a joyous evening and to enjoy the pleasant company of teachers and friends before a period of long separation.

We have to note with regret that in spite of our utmost efforts we could not commence our programme at the time announced. A little before 7, after the garlanding of the President, who was no other than our revered Principal, was over, the curtain rose before an eager and expectant audience consisting of the Principal, Prof. Lalit Kumar Banerji and many other professors and a good many of our dear fellow-students.

Our programme consisted of songs, concert, instrumental music, recitations, comic sketches and theatrical performance of "Baikunther Khata" and selected scenes from "Shajahan."

After the other items were over, the principal item of our programme, 'Baikunter Khata', commenced. The performance was highly enjoyed by the professors and the students. 'Beni Babu'—beg your pardon, 'Bepin Babu' was quite charming with his ingenious song; and we expect that Sj. Kshirod Bhattacharya will keep that devil-may-care, happy-go-lucky attitude throughout his life. Sj. Sasankadev Chatterjee made a good representation of the old servant 'Ishwan' but we have heard the old 'Baikuntha' sadly complaining that Ishwan, of late, forgets—due to old age of course—to equip the hubble-bubble with tobacco while making it ready for his master. Like master, like servant! Sj. Sailesh Sen and Sj. Gangadhar Banerjee, in their respective roles of 'Abinash' and Tinkari made themselves thoroughly enjoyable.

Sj. Nanda Kishore Sen of the II year 'B', offered a gold-centered medal to whoever would be judged to be the best of the actors; and Professors Nripendra Banerjee, Panchanan Ghoshal and Pratul Ghosh were elected honorary judges of the award.

Before the closing song was sung Prof. Ghosal on behalf of the Triumvirate rose to announce the judgment. In expressing his appreciation of this little entertainment, Prof. Ghosal referred to the necessity of this sort of unions and gatherings and their good effect upon the mind that had been tired in passing through a long period of routine-work, and encouraged the students in their merry endeavours. The unanimous verdict of the judges fell upon Kanai Basu as 'Baikuntha'.

We offer our heart-felt gratitude to all our friends who volunteered their untiring services and spared no pains to bring the gathering to a success. Our sincere thanks also to those who notwithstanding great inconvenience and loss of time, treated us with songs, music, recitations and comic skits; and also to Sj. Nanda Kishore Sen for his presentation of the medal.

We congratulate Sj. Ramesh Bhattacharya for the grand mastery that he has acquired in the playing of Esraj. He simply charmed the audience with his fine display. The names of Sj. Sasanka Chatterji, Sudhir Das Gupta and Abani Bhattacharya also deserve special mention for their beautiful recitations.

Lastly, we beg of all our revered professors and dear friends who graced the meeting with their pleasant company and patient audience, to be excused for the errors and shortcomings that had crept in inspite of our best endeavours.

We publish below the account of subscriptions and expenses of the Social Gathering, submitted by the Asst. Treasurer, Jagadish Basu (IV yr B. A.) and checked by Prof. Jitendranath Chakravarty, our Treasurer and Vice-President.

CALCUTTA.

I remain; Dear Sirs,
Your most obedient servant.
Sd. Jagadish Chandra Bose.
3rd. Year. Arts.
Asst. Treasurer of the Association.

After the college reopened, the inaugural meeting of the Students' Association for the new session, was held on 27th July last. The meeting was presided over by the Principal and graced by the presence of many of our professors. The meeting opened with the "Bande Mataram" song sung by Acharia of the 4th yr. B. A. Prof Lalit Kumar Banerjee read a Bengali paper on "ছুটি" (written in the vacation) which kept up the high literary traditions of his past days and was a real treat. The reading of the paper was followed by Rabindra nath's "সীতার মাঝে অসীম ভূমি বাঁধাও আপন সুর" sung creditably well by master Bimal Mitra, a boy of our School, and the finishing touch was given by Prof. Nriyendra Banerji in a few well-chosen words of appreciation of the essay read. The fortunate start that the Association as got in its new session is, as the President of the Association rightly remarked, an auspicious sign and foretells of a bright future of the Association.

The second sitting of the Association came off on August 17, under the presidentship of Prof. Bhababihuti Vidyabhusan. The meeting commenced with a song by Kanai Basu. S. Pulin Pal of the 4th yr. B. A. read an interesting paper in Bengali by the name of "লেজুর মাহাত্ম্য". About the paper we need not say anything but that it was able to please him who is the pioneer in the art of such humorous writing, we mean Prof. Lalit Kumar Banerji, and that Prof Nripendra Chandra Banerji remarked that the young writer was a worthy pupil of Lalit Babu. We find no higher compliment for our friend. Elsewhere we publish the paper.

In conclusion we welcome our new friends who have joined us in the current session.
