CLASSICS AT THE UNIVERSITY.

No provision need be made for the Indian Vernaculars at any University Examination, as ample provision has been made for them both at the Primary and Secondary stages of Education. According to the Resolution of the Government of India dated the 11th March 1904, the vernaculars are to be the medium of instruction up to the minimum age of 13, and it has been further recommended that 'the study of vernaculars should be kept up until the end of the school course' by which, no doubt, the Government of India mean the School Final Examination.

The Universities Commission recommend in para 171 of their Report "that the only subjects in which a student should be examined are English, a classical language, Mathematics, and History and Geography" at the Matriculation Examination. They further include a classical language as a compulsory subject in the Intermediate Course and in the B. A. Course (para
