

IN MEMORIAM

Scarcely a year passes without snatching away some friends from our midst. It is with a heavy heart that we have to record here the death of Mr Byomkesh Chakravarty, Bar-at-law, who was connected with our college ever since its foundation and was a member of its Governing Body. As soon as the college reopened after the Long Vacation the members of the staff assembled at the Library Hall with the Principal in the chair. Eloquent tributes were paid to the versatile genius of the late Mr B. Chakravarti, and a condolence resolution was passed in solemn silence, all standing in honour of the memory of the deceased. The college also remained closed for two days as a mark of respect for the memory of this illustrious son of Bengal.

It is our melancholy duty also to record the sad and untimely death of Babu Debanshunath Chakravarti, who was for many years a Professor of English in our college. A few years ago he left our staff for the sake of his health and joined the D. A. V. College, Cawnpore. He was one of those teachers who had a hand in starting our College Union. At the first sitting of the Union this session eloquent tributes were paid to his memory and a condolence resolution was adopted. We offer our heartfelt condolence to his bereaved family.

Pandit Kalikrishna Bhattacharyya of Vidyasagar College is no more. He was a veteran educationist, a true disciple of Pandit Iswar Chandra Vidyasagar and a man of exemplary character. His death will be long mourned by his friends and admirers. We express our sincere sympathy with his bereaved family.
